Plaintiffs,

vs.

Case No: 1:18-cv-13515-LJM-PTM
Honorable: Laurie J. Michelson
United States District Judge

Presque Isle County
Department of Child Protective
Services, et al.

Defendants.

RESPONSE TO ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE-FAILURE TO PROSECUTE

1. That the within stated complaint was filed on November 14, 2018.
2. That on December 14, 2018 counsel's office conferred with Ms. Bobra Johnston, supervisor of DHHS, CPS office in Presque Isle County, defendant, to confirm effectuating service.
3. Ms. Bobra Johnston referred counsel's office to Julie Waldron of the DHHS legal Department.
4. That Julie Waldron indicated that she could not accept service and referred counsel back to Ms. Bobra Johnston.
5. That counsel was on medical leave from January 8 until early February.

6. That on February 21, 2019, Ms. Bobra Johnston indicated that she was in receipt of said complaint and had forwarded same to Attorney Jeffery Meaton.
7. That on March 28, 2019, after conferring with Ms. Bobra Johnston, counsel learned that Attorney Jeffrey Meaton had not properly received service.
8. That counsel is requesting until April 22, 2019, to personally serve the Attorney General's office or Attorney Jeffrey Meaton at a physical address (as the Bar Journal indicates a P.O. Box). Counsel further respectfully requests that this Honorable Court grant the issuance of a new summons or an extension of the current summons if appropriate.

WHEREFORE, Counsel respectfully requests that this Honorable Court allow until April 22, 2019, to personally serve the Attorney General's office or Attorney Jeffrey Meaton at a physical address. Counsel further requests that this Honorable Court grant the issuance of a new summons or an extension of the current summons if appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Allison Folmar
