Plaintiff's 'right' as a man, to travel 'in' subject land, on the open-high-way, unrestricted, under the common law jurisdiction of the People of the same land, Nebraska, has been violated, intentionally, by all defendants, by direct acts, policy, and custom, as fully evidenced in Douglas County Case CR 16-29868. Plaintiff's right to have a meaningful challenge of personal, subject matter, and territorial (land) jurisdiction, was denied in open court. With many due process violations, by the Defendants, which occurred during, after, the said prosecution, and is now presently occurring.

C. CAUSE OF ACTIONS

1. Plaintiff allege that Plaintiff's God given, constitutional enumerated unalienable rights have been violated and that the following facts form the basis for Plaintiff's allegations:

Count I: STATE OF NEBRASKA, violated Plaintiff's right to movement, in the subject land.

Supporting Facts: That on or about the 12 day of December 2016, STATE OF NEBRASKA, by its intentional policy, and custom, and failure to inform its officers, to the limited jurisdictions of the STATE OF NEBRASKA legislature. and failing to inform its city, county, and state officers, of their limited land* jurisdiction that is enumerated in state and federal law, as all 'acts' of U.S. (Union) associated legislatures are, as relating to Plaintiff's right to movement, by automobile, in the subject land, where the stop and arrest took place, as associated with Douglas County Case

CR 16-29868. As associated with the arrest at 36 and “L” Street, Omaha, Nebraska, as land not evidenced as being of the United States. Misconduct resulted in a violation or denial of the rights at issue in the case are:

- i. my right to movement, by a safe manner, in land that is not evidenced as being of the United States;
- ii. my right to false arrest. I was arrested without law.
- iii. My right to being charged pursuant to the 4th Amendment, as such operated in the year of 1791.
- iv. my right from life liberty and the pursuit of happiness, as enumerated in the declaration of Independence;
- v. my right from being governed by STATE OF NEBRASKA law in land not in this ‘state’ as such term is defined in - Nebraska Revised Statute 60-666, “State”, defined (Department of Motor Vehicle Chapter.) State shall mean a state, territory, or possession of the United States, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, or a province of Canada.
- vi. my right from having my property taken without judicial due process.
- vii. my right to meaningful access to the court in challenging personal, subject matter, and territorial jurisdiction. American Banana Co. v. United Fruit Co., - 213 U.S. 347, 356-357 (1909) “...construction of any statute as intended to be confined in its operation and effect to the territorial limits over which the lawmaker has general and legitimate power.”

Count II: CITY OF OMAHA, violated Plaintiff’s right to movement, in the subject land.

Supporting Facts: Misconduct resulted in a violation or denial of the rights at issue in the case are that on or about the 12 day of December 2016, CITY OF OMAHA, by its intentional policy, and custom, and failure to inform its officers, to the limited jurisdictions of the STATE OF NEBRASKA legislature, and failing to inform its city, county, and state officers, of their limited jurisdiction that is enumerated in state and federal law, as all ‘acts’ of U.S. (Union) associated legislatures are, as relating to Plaintiff’s right to movement, by automobile, in the subject land, where the stop and arrest took place, as associated with Douglas County Case CR 16-29868. As associated with the arrest at 36 and “L” Street, Omaha, Nebraska, as land not evidenced as being of the United States.

Count III: Marcela A. Keim, with intent, in Douglas County Case CR 16-29868, failed to protect Plaintiff’s right to mobility (travel), in the subject land, failed to protect Plaintiff from false arrest, false incarceration, failed to recognize that Plaintiff, as a man, was never charged pursuant to the ‘Bill of Rights’, failed to protect Plaintiff from unlawful search, failed to protect Plaintiff from unlawful seizure, failed to protect Plaintiff from malicious prosecution, failed to protect Plaintiff from wrongful prosecution, failed to provide a fair trial, failed to obey clearly established written law, failed to provide Plaintiff with meaningful time and access to the court, and damaged Plaintiff by falsifying a government record.

Supporting Facts: In Douglas County Case CR 16-29868, Marcela A. Keim, with the said prosecution, intentionally denied Plaintiff's right to challenge 'personal jurisdiction', 'subject matter jurisdiction', and 'territorial jurisdiction', by upon Plaintiff's three challenges, in open court, as she failed to require the STATE OF NEBRASKA to prove, yet recklessly allowed the prosecution, and sentencing, to continue. As associated with the arrest at 36 and "L" Street, Omaha, Nebraska, as land not evidenced as being of the United States. Misconduct resulted in violations or denials of the rights at issue in the case as:

- (i) Keim ignored the fact that there were no charges brought against Plaintiff by affidavit, as required in the 4th Amendment.
- (ii) Keim ignored the fact that Plaintiff was never charged as a matter of law.
- (iii) Keim ignored the fact that no evidence from the Defendants of the required land jurisdiction was evidenced on the court record, to complete the court's jurisdiction, as was challenged in open court during trial more than 10 times, by Plaintiff.
- (iv) Keim ignored the fact that Plaintiff had, and now has, a right to the 'Bill of Exceptions' of all the court trial proceedings against Plaintiff at no cost.
- (v) Keim ignored the fact that Keim was applying STATE OF NEBRASKA law upon land not evidenced as being of the STATE OF NEBRASKA, thus simulating a STATE OF NEBRASKA judicial process.
- (vi) Keim ignored the fact that Defendants failed to assure all the required elements of evidence to give the court to maintain subject matter jurisdiction.
- (vii) Keim conspired with all Defendants to deprive Plaintiff of all the enumerated rights as stated in this complaint.
- (viii) Keim ignored the fact that no 4th Amendment 'oath or affirmation' is in the court records evidence to support any warrant as has been operating in this court case for more than 1257 days.
- (ix) Keim conspired to participate in the following criminal acts:
  - a. Plaintiffs false imprisonment without law.
  - b. State created danger, armed arrest of Plaintiff doing a rightful activity.
(Converted a right into a crime.)
  - c. Unlawful seizure, taking of private property on private land.
  - d. Armed robbery, a taking of Plaintiff and Plaintiff's property with/by threat.
  - e. Coercive power, a taking of Plaintiff by military, gunpoint force.
  - f. Keim, as a paid employee, judge, knowingly accepts benefits from unconstitutional behavior, paid to violate Plaintiff's right of mobility.
  - g. Keim participated in systematic extortion – as she is paid to steal by armed force, by court order.
  - h. Keim, by custom and practice, allows malicious prosecution, and arrest, of Plaintiff, for Keim knew few will fight back, thus crime pays.

Count IV: Jeff L. Marcuzzo, with intent, blocked evidence of law to be entered into the court record, a denial of court, due process, and Plaintiff's rights.

Supporting Facts: In the Douglas County Case CR 16-29868 pre-trial hearing, date unknown, in open court, with 'notice upon court of its lack of subject matter jurisdiction in the instant case, Marcuzzo intentionally did the following misconduct which resulted in violations or denials of the rights at issue in the case which are:

- i. Denied my ability to get a brief, with memorandum of law, into the case record evidence that the relied upon law by the prosecution is 'void for vagueness'. (Brief is available for evidence.)
- ii. Refused to take judicial notice of the incorporated law in the said brief, memorandum of law.
- iii. Instructed the Sheriff's deputy that was overseeing the proceedings to clear the courtroom without my knowledge, behind my back. ('Bill of Right' enumerated right to an open/public hearing.) (Cleared all ten people, except one man, as he was Plaintiff's (My) witness, by resisting the deputies implied whispered order, "to leave if you have no business in this courtroom". (The proceeding was independently recorded by several attenders.) As associated with the arrest at 36 and "L" Street, Omaha, Nebraska, as land not evidenced as being of the United States.
- iv. And instructed the court recording to be turned off prematurely while the brief was offered as evidence of law before the court, as the witness clearly heard and viewed as it was a lengthy oral ordeal.

Count V: Mary M. Elliston, with intent, in Douglas County Case CR 16-29868, failed to protect Plaintiff's right to mobility (travel), in the subject land, failed to protect Plaintiff from false arrest, false incarceration, failed to recognize that Plaintiff, as a man, was never charged pursuant to the 'Bill of Rights', failed to protect Plaintiff from unlawful search, failed to protect Plaintiff from unlawful seizure, did acts of malicious prosecution, did acts of wrongful prosecution, failed to provide a fair trial, failed to obey clearly established written law, and damaged Plaintiff by falsifying a government record. As associated with the arrest at 36 and "L" Street, Omaha, Nebraska, as land not evidenced as being of the United States.

Supporting Facts: In Douglas County Case CR 16-29868, Elliston as prosecuting attorney, intentionally failed to evidence 'personal jurisdiction', 'subject matter jurisdiction', and 'territorial jurisdiction', by upon Plaintiff's three challenges, in open court, as Elliston continued the prosecution. Therefore, the misconduct which resulted in violations or denials of the rights at issue in the case are:

- (x) Elliston ignored the fact that there were no charges brought against Plaintiff by affidavit, as required in the 4th Amendment.
- (xi) Elliston ignored the fact that Plaintiff was never charged as a matter of law.
- (xii) Elliston ignored the fact that no evidence from the Defendants of the required land jurisdiction was evidenced on the court record, to complete the court's jurisdiction, as was challenged in open court during trial more than 10 times, by Plaintiff.

- (xiii) Elliston ignored the fact that Elliston was applying STATE OF NEBRASKA law upon land not evidenced as being of the STATE OF NEBRASKA, thus simulating a STATE OF NEBRASKA judicial, administrative process.
- (xiv) Elliston ignored the fact that Defendants failed to assure all the required elements of evidence to maintain subject matter jurisdiction.
- (xv) Elliston conspired with all Defendants to deprive Plaintiff of all the enumerated rights as stated in this complaint.
- (xvi) Elliston ignored the fact that no 4th Amendment 'oath or affirmation' is in the court records evidence to support any warrant as has been operating in this court case for more than 1257 days.
- (xvii) Elliston conspired to participate in the following criminal acts:
  - i. Plaintiffs false imprisonment without law.
  - j. State created danger, armed arrest of Plaintiff doing rightful activity. (Converted a right into a crime.)
  - k. Unlawful seizure, taking of private property on private land.
  - l. Armed robbery, a taking of Plaintiff and Plaintiff's property with/by threat.
  - m. Coercive power, a taking of Plaintiff by military, gunpoint force.
  - n. Elliston, as a paid employee, who knowingly accepts benefits from unconstitutional behavior, paid to violate Plaintiff's right of mobility.
  - o. Elliston participated in systematic extortion – as she is paid to steal by armed force, by court process.
  - p. Elliston, by custom and practice, allows malicious prosecution, and arrest, of Plaintiff, for Elliston knew few will fight back, thus crime pays.

Count VI: That on or about the 12 day of December 2016, Erin E. Marcotte, with intent, in Douglas County Case CR 16-29868, failed to protect Plaintiff's right to mobility (travel), in the subject land, failed to protect Plaintiff from false arrest, false incarceration, failed to recognize that Plaintiff, as a man, was never charged pursuant to the 'Bill of Rights', failed to protect Plaintiff from unlawful search, failed to protect Plaintiff from unlawful seizure, did acts of malicious prosecution, did acts of wrongful prosecution, failed to provide a fair trial, failed to obey clearly established written law, and damaged Plaintiff by falsifying a government record. As associated with the arrest at 36 and "L" Street, Omaha, Nebraska, as land not evidenced as being of the United States.

Supporting Facts: In Douglas County Case CR 16-29868, Marcotte as arresting officer, specifically to the 'territorial jurisdiction', ignored U.S. written law, as noticed, by Plaintiff's challenge, in open court, as Marcotte continued to participate in the prosecution. Therefore, the misconduct which resulted in violations or denials of the rights at issue in the case are:

- (xviii) Marcotte ignored the fact that there were no charges brought against Plaintiff by affidavit, as required in the 4th Amendment.
- (xix) Marcotte ignored the fact that Plaintiff was never charged as a matter of law.

- (xx) Marcotte ignored the fact that no evidence from the Defendants of the required land jurisdiction was evidenced on the court record, to complete the court's jurisdiction, as was challenged in open court during trial more than 10 times, by Plaintiff.
- (xxi) Marcotte ignored the fact that Marcotte was applying STATE OF NEBRASKA law upon land not evidenced as being of the STATE OF NEBRASKA, thus simulating a STATE OF NEBRASKA enforcement of law.
- (xxii) Marcotte ignored the fact that Defendants failed to assure all the required elements of evidence to maintain subject matter jurisdiction.
- (xxiii) Marcotte conspired with all Defendants to deprive Plaintiff of all the enumerated rights as stated in this complaint.
