iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/17/2019 5:36:41 AM

Try not to spend more that $500 on the bedroom combo.

There'll be all kinds of nice upgrades to get $1000-$1500 out of you.

iMessage Message sent 4/17/2019 5:43:58 AM - Delivered

I'll ask again, can I help you out in any way?????

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/17/2019 5:48:58 AM

BB

Well I'm about to get breakfast and then do this Poison Ivy rip out I agreed to do for $100.

Then a survey study for $50

Then putting out about 200 door hangers today if I have the energy.

And IF I can do another 200 ads Thursday and 200 ads Friday that'll be $160 paid on the 800 total doors.

So your $500 plus this $310 = $810 which will almost cover my April bills.

So I'm looking pretty good.

But May is just days away and it starts all over again.

Two extra bills in May are $250 fine and a $75 car Registration and probably a $30 inspection.

Plus the five regular bills of $410, $90, $105, $88, and $77.

So in may I'll need to earn about $1300 by adding food and gas to that.

iMessage Message sent 4/17/2019 5:51:44 AM - Delivered

I sent you another $500. I need your mind off bills and on my case.

iMessage Message sent 4/17/2019 2:54:45 PM - Delivered

A screenshot of an iMessage conversation. The message is a screenshot of an email. The email header shows 'T-Mobile LTE', '4:54 PM', and '55%' battery. The email body contains the following text: 'Stoney obtained the PFA and the date of the allegation against you. Granted, on "its face", everything does appear that you were not served at the time. However, DDA Natalie Walker wants to confirm the information before taking any action. I have also provided her a copy of the same document via e-mail.' The last sentence is highlighted in yellow. Below this is another paragraph: 'I would strongly suggest you retain the services of a Family Law attorney to maneuver through that process. In the event you do have legal counsel, then I would suggest you take his/her advice rather than file your own pleadings. In my many years of practice, I have found that clients who act without first seeking the advice of legal counsel, and following their advice, usually make their hill much higher to climb.' The final paragraph says: 'Please refrain from filing any further frivolous pleadings with this Court. Should you want to discuss the matter'.

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/17/2019 2:56:33 PM

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ALABAMA

NOTICE OF ASSIGNMENT OF CASE TO A UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE FOR TRIAL

Pursuant to the Court's January 2, 2015 General Order for Referral of Civil Matters to the United States Magistrate Judges of the Northern District of Alabama, this case has been randomly assigned to a magistrate judge.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), with written consent of all parties, the assigned magistrate judge may conduct all proceedings in this case, including all pretrial and trial proceedings, and the magistrate judge may enter judgment and resolve any post-trial motions. If the parties consent unanimously to dispositive jurisdiction by the magistrate judge, then any appellate challenge to the final judgment or to any interlocutory order in this case shall be made directly to the United States Court of Appeals for the Eleventh Circuit.

You must complete the attached form to indicate whether you consent to proceed before the assigned magistrate judge or decline to proceed before the assigned magistrate judge. You may complete the form electronically and submit it by logging into CM/ECF at the following web address: <https://ecf.alnd.uscourts.gov>. When you submit the form electronically, it will be delivered directly to the Clerk of Court; it will not be filed on the docket sheet, and no judge will have access to the form. Alternatively, you may print the form, complete it manually, and submit the form to the Clerk's Office. You may withhold consent without adverse consequences.

If you are the plaintiff or the removing party in this case, you must file your consent/declination form within 45 days of receipt of this notice. Each other party must file its consent/declination form within 45 days of appearing in this case. Only the Clerk of Court shall review the parties' consent/declination forms. If all parties have not provided written consent to magistrate judge jurisdiction within 45 days after either (1) the last served defendant has filed an answer, (2) a defendant has filed a motion to dismiss, or (3) a plaintiff has filed a motion to remand, whichever occurs first, then the Clerk shall reassign the case to a district judge.

The plaintiff or removing party must serve a copy of this notice upon all other parties to this action with the summons and complaint or upon receipt of this notice, whichever comes first.

Personally, I would respectfully decline for this case to be heard by a Magistrate, only because Magistrates cannot sentence anyone to Prison, only Federal Judges can, and because this case involves Federal Kidnapping which is an offense subject to prison, and I would state that reasoning in the response

In that matter, the issue comes down to one fine-line argument: Whether or not you were served notice before the allegation was made.

(I AGREE.)

I can assure you that Ms. Hampton has handled many similar cases and she will provide you the same quality and zealous defense as always.

(I AM SURE SHE HAS VERBALLY DONE SO, ON BOTH OF THOSE POINTS. I HAVE FAITH AND CONFIDENCE IN HER ACUMEN AND SKILL OF CRIMINAL DEFENSE.)

Ms. Hampton has already presented the Deputy District Attorney (DDA) with documents that evidence the date Ms. Stoney obtained the PFA and the date of the allegation against you.

(YES, I KNEW THIS, HOWEVER I WOULD MUCH APPRECIATE A MOTION TO QUASH FILED AS SOON AS POSSIBLE TO FORCE THE FINALITY OF THIS, USING THE EVIDENCE OF THE CONTACT DATES, THE DATE OF SERVICE AND THE DATE OF THE FALSE COMPLAINT.)

Granted, on "its face", everything does appear that

Ok. Is there more to it than checking the box?

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/18/2019 5:51:36 AM

BB

It's short and simple

iMessage Message sent 4/18/2019 5:51:42 AM - Delivered

Ok

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/18/2019 5:53:05 AM

BB

Yes
Remember the sentence about wanting a Judge, by the time this gets to court so that sentence of imprisonment could be given if they were found guilty?

iMessage Message sent 4/18/2019 5:53:48 AM - Delivered

Right

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/18/2019 5:54:37 AM

BB

If you want me too
Or you can check either box like it is and send it back

iMessage Message sent 4/18/2019 5:54:57 AM - Delivered

I'm declining the magistrate for sure

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/18/2019 5:55:33 AM

BB

Then I'd like to add that line to ensure the court knows why

iMessage Message sent 4/18/2019 5:55:52 AM - Delivered

Makes sense

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/18/2019 5:56:04 AM

BB

Maybe allow the magistrate up until trial time

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/18/2019 5:56:51 AM

BB

In other words you're ok with a magistrate pre trial but you want a judge for the trial

iMessage Message sent 4/18/2019 5:57:59 AM - Delivered

Can I have it both ways? Wouldn't it be more beneficial to have the same judge throughout?

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/18/2019 5:59:44 AM

BB

By allowing the magistrate to handle all pre trial issues it saves the Judge time and brain power solving non critical issues and it gives the magistrate practice in becoming a judge

iMessage Message sent 4/18/2019 6:02:22 AM - Delivered

So it's good for them. How is it good for me?

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/18/2019 6:03:00 AM

BB

It doesn't piss them off by wasting the judges time on little stuff

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/18/2019 6:04:18 AM

BB

And anything the magistrate rules on will be reviewed by the judge anyway

iMessage Message sent 4/18/2019 6:04:31 AM - Delivered

Makes sense

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/18/2019 6:05:40 AM

BB

This whole thing may get resolved within the next month anyway

iMessage Message sent 4/18/2019 6:05:51 AM - Delivered

That would be ideal

So I decided to watch a sermon by that Steven furtick guy, and man let me tell you, he had me going. Everything he was saying was on point and perfectly harmonious with scripture till 26 minutes in when he decided to say that "God leaves a love for sin in your life so that his grace has a place to work" he called it a paradox, but really it's a contradiction. That stands in direct contradiction of Romans 6. I actually wanted to be wrong about him. But it seems I was not. He is a wolf in sheep's clothing no doubt.

I have to review their decisions. I got a letter and it has all their reasons deciding each claim. Right now, I'm at 60% which equates to just over $1100 a month.

iMessage Message sent 4/22/2019 5:11:43 AM - Delivered

That's actually the exact number I was expecting, so I don't know what I'm going to find if anything

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/22/2019 5:13:46 AM

BB

I'm not saying you should get more than $1,100

The check should have from the date you applied.

Not just from the date of final determination.

iMessage Message sent 4/22/2019 5:14:45 AM - Delivered

Oh right. Yeah I got backpay for 6 months. They said the claim was from October instead of September so I guess technically they owe me another month.

iMessage Message sent 4/22/2019 5:16:47 AM - Delivered

It couldn't have come at a better time. I was able to pay off the car repairs, pay for some injectors and a couple new tires, gave you $500, paid off my collections, bought Mackenzie's furniture..

No, not out of getting money from you; out of having Mackenzie for the next 13 years.

There is an economic benefit.

Kids can be manipulated to say things that never happened.
So if they go there, don't be mad at Mackenzie for lying.
The DHR report and interviews are your major defense there.

When they took Mackenzie to leave, she refused to go with my parents. She literally grabbed a pole and wouldn't go with the staff people. She was crying and saying she wanted to go home with me. I had to go talk her down and into going with my parents. All while they watched. I'm an thAt was difficult

BB

They'll probably verbally punish or scold her for publicly saying what was coming out of her heart, mind and will.

Pray for her to be strong through this.

It'll soon be over.

iMessage Message sent 4/28/2019 3:53:34 PM - Delivered

Yep I had to tell her to be strong and it wasn't going to be like this forever.

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/28/2019 4:50:44 PM

Also, one of Mackenzie's teachers grabs her by the arm and hurts her. Sounds like Mackenzie has been getting in trouble at school because she doesn't know how to deal with jerk kids so she is "mean" to them I didn't get much out of her about it but I know enough to not want her in that school.

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/28/2019 10:11:18 PM

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/29/2019 9:02:09 AM

Well at least he signed the order WITHOUT prejudice, so that means you aren't blocked for a second attempt

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/29/2019 9:17:04 AM

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 4/29/2019 9:17:58 AM

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 5/1/2019 9:17:43 PM

I am seeing in this material, that if your mother was just an ordinary person, that there may be no Federal cause of action, but she is a city official and made an official false claim of unspecified potential neglect or abuse, which is going to play well in your Petition

Ok

iMessage Message received from Brady Byrum 5/1/2019 9:19:41 PM

Response from GAL

"Larry,

Sorry for taking so long to get back to you.

I understand that Mackenzie told her Grandparents about the incident, and I believe they have taken appropriate action to address the issue with the school. Lori said that it was not her teacher, but rather a teacher's aid who has a history of being rather "gruff" in her interactions with students. Lori spoke with the principal and told her that this is not acceptable, that if there were behavior problems with Mackenzie that she should be taken to the office or a call should be made to them and they would handle the situation. Supposedly this teacher's aid will not be returning to the school next year and has been advised about how to handle future discipline issues should they arise.

On another note, Lori said that Mackenzie's counselor told her that Mackenzie said her Dad had been showing her pictures of "her room" and telling her that she is going to be coming to live with him. If this is accurate, and I have asked that Lori have the counselor send me a summary of this exchange, it of course goes without saying (but I am going to say it anyway), this is not appropriate. I know he wants her to be with him and is hoping she will be soon, but until an order is entered doing that, he doesn't need to be having those sorts of conversations with her during their visits. They just need to enjoy each other's company, and I know he will moving forward.

Her manager is pretty awful from what she tells me. One of the tellers asked to leave because her uncle was dying in the hospital and instead of letting her go, she argued with her for half an hour until the girl quit. Her uncle died minutes before she got to him.

Just left. It went well. The judge is pissed that they were even able to get the pfa to begin with. However, she is taking this case under advisement so the final decision hasn't been made, but she did say "from this point on there is to be no contact or we'll be right back in here" so basically, what that means is that the judge wants to make sure I follow the pfa from here on out, which I have been 100% since I was served with it before she officially dismisses it. My mom cried on the stand. It was pathetic. She knows she lying. And the judge wasn't having it. This judge is good. For real. Saw straight through her bullshit
