Hey kent, maybe you should check your Facebook. It would be a shame if someone had been telling on you for WEEKS without you noticing.

Why?

Because idiots like you can just blabber on and on because they have no life so they spend their time gossiping about others. They feel free to get involved in other's jobs and businesses and make themselves feel important like they have accomplished something in life rather than realize they are a loser.

Loser huh? You put me in charge of half your property because I'm a loser? That really helps your case. Kent Hovind promotes losers to manage his affairs. Seems pretty or for the course if you ask me.
