To Whom It May Concern:

It has come to my attention that some things that were said in the court case of Kent and Jo Hovind have been removed from the court transcripts. This is quite disturbing to me considering our court system should be at least one place that honestly should be held at the very highest level.

At the sentencing of Kent Hovind, I heard Judge Casey Rogers state that what Kent Hovind had done was as bad or worse than a rapist, now I have found out that that is not even in the transcripts. It makes me wonder just what else was removed from this very controversial case transcript?

I feel as a citizen of this country this situation should be addressed.

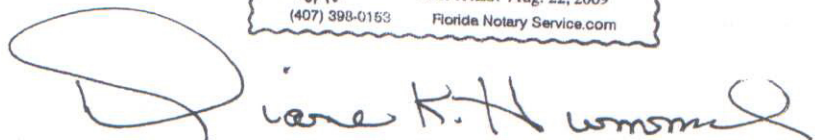

If our court system, judges, and prosecutors are not held extremely accountable to their professional honesty, what does that say about our judicial system?

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

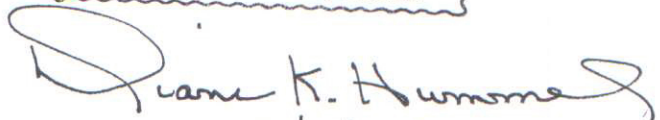

This letter is to bear witness to the words expressed by the Honorable Judge Rogers presiding over the trial and sentencing of Dr. Kent Hovind. I was not present during the trial but was present during the entire sentencing procedure. I gave personal testimony pertaining to the character of Dr. Hovind to the court just before the final sentencing judgment was handed down. During the final sentencing Judge Rogers made the statement about, and to Dr. Hovind, and I quote "you are worse than a rapist" unquote. I attest and do personally bear witness to the fact.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

I remember the day Dr. Kent Hovind was sentenced; Judge Rogers said she was giving him 10 years for the crimes he convicted of. I also remember her saying the crimes you are convicted of are "worse than that of a rapist." I will never forget those words, they have echoed in my mind ever since that day.

To Whom it May Concern,

On the night of June 27, 2002, I was awakened by a stranger forcibly entering my first-floor college apartment. About five hours later, I was a different person. The events that took place in those five hours were the most horrific events I had ever experienced in my 20 years. Five and a half years later, the night my life was marked is still burned impermeably in my mind. I had been raped.

On the afternoon of January 19, 2007, I was sitting in the courtroom of the sentencing of Kent and Jo Hovind during which Judge Casey Rodgers announced that Kent Hovind would spend the next ten years of his life in prison. She stated her sentencing was harsh because the tax-related crimes he committed were worse than committing violent crimes such as murder or rape. The words coming out of her mouth were as bone chilling to me as that unfamiliar touch was on the night my world was turned upside down. Just as vividly as I remember that statement, I remember praying to God that no one in that courtroom would ever be victim of a truly violent crime. No amount of money, regardless of how it was acquired or spent, could ever compare to crimes that were committed against me and my family in those five hours.

Thank you for your time.

In Christ,

Affidavit of Judge Rodgers' Statement

On January 19, 2007, I sat in the courtroom with my husband, Dr. Kent Hovind for our sentencing. There were some things that I will never forget about that day. One of those was Judge Rodgers' degrading speech as she sentenced my husband.

Among other things, she said that she had received letters from some saying that surely she did not consider Dr. Hovind's crime as offensive as such heinous crimes as murder and rape. I distinctly remember when Judge Rodgers said, "Mr. Hovind, I do consider what you have done to be worse than rape!"

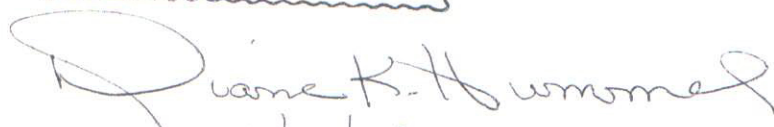

I find that glaringly missing from the transcript.

Submitted as my truthful statement.

Dear Barb, Following is my statement that should go into an affidavit.

On January 19, 2008 I was personally present in the Court Room of Federal Judge Casey Rogers of Pensacola, Florida at the Sentencing hearing of Rev. Kent Hovind. I personally heard Judge Casey say that the crime of which Dr. Hovind had been convicted, though only a misdemeanor (sp) was worse than "rape".
